Bank secrecy laws of Switzerland

2992. SHRI ASHOK NATH VERMA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether in view of the fact that the Supreme Court of Switzerland has relaxed its strict bank secrecy laws Government propose to move the Switzerland Supreme Court to further relax its strict bank secrecy laws to enable India to get the names of the Indian Nationals Citizens who have bank accounts in Swiss Banks;

(b) if so, when; and

(c) if not, what are the reasons

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF EXPENDITURE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI B. K. GADHVI): (a) to (c) The Swiss Federal Law known as Federal Act on International Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters (IMAC) provides for rendering of mutual assistance in criminal matters where acts with respect to which assistance is sought satisfy the test of dual criminality and the State seeking assistance guarantees reciprocity to Swiss authorities. If the above conditions are satisfied, Swiss authorities would entertain requests for assistance in criminal matters under the provisions of IMAC and suitable proceedings could be initiated in Swiss courts for obtaining the requisite information from the concerned banks.

Government is initiating steps to enter into a treaty for mutual assistance in criminal matters with Swiss authorities, and pending conclusion of such a treaty/agreement entering into a Memorandum of Understanding with Swiss authorities for assistance in specific cases of Indians having accounts in Swiss banks with funds obtained illegally.
